3. My Story My Song

Do you have a story or song about your worship community or worship team? What is God doing in your ministry and how is He using your ministry to help people?

Video or Audio record your story and send it to us! This can be a message about a particular event, worship experience or testimony of what God is doing in your church/worship team. Do you have any life changing stories of people in your worship ministry? Was there a specific song that God used in a service to bring healing or restoration? Was there a mission or community event in which you witnessed the Lord working through the hearts of people? Tell us about it!

Email us at: info@worshipteamtraining.com

From here, we will instruct you in how to send audio and/or video files by using Drop Box. It's quick, easy and most of all fun to hear your shared stories about the life of your church/worship team.

Featured Guest Interview

Holland Davis

Senior Pastor / Worship Leader & Artist

Pastor Holland Davis (P.HD) is the founder and senior pastor of Worship Life Calvary Chapel in San Clemente, California. He and his wife, Roxie, have two sons (Austin, Chase) and a daughter (Madison). They live in San Juan Capistrano, California.

Holland is a recognized worship leader and songwriter from Maranatha! Music where his platinum selling song "Let It Rise" was recorded by Paul Baloche. Holland's songs have been published by Vineyard Music, Calvary Chapel Music, Maranatha! Music, Rolltop Records and Word Music and continue to be in the top 100 songs sung by church in the United States as reported by CCLI. However, during a trip to Israel, Pastor Holland once again began to sense God's leading to return to ministry. This eventually led him to Calvary Chapel Costa Mesa where he led worship for Pastor Chuck Smith, founded the School of Worship, founded Worship Life Conferences and relaunched Calvary Chapel Music.

In 2009, God began to reveal that He had other plans for Holland and his wife Roxie. Through several prophetic words and the agreement of his wife, God made it clear that it was time for Pastor Holland to plant a new Calvary Chapel work in San Clemente. With Pastor Chuck Smith's blessing, Pastor Holland launched Worship Life Calvary Chapel with a small but dedicated team of church planters on February 14, 2010. The church is now established and growing.

Holland continues to teach and lead worship at conferences such as Exodus International, Billy Graham Rapid Response Training, Worship Life Conferences and Christian Musician

Summits. His column, "In The Muse" can be seen monthly in Technologies For Worship Magazine.

Holland Davis "The Nearness of God"

Questions:

1. When our congregations gather, there is a sense that the music is the warm up before the message, the band is not playing the right song (or playing it right), and other aesthetic or annoying issues that get in the way of worship.

Some people do not experience God on a deeper level because either A: they are only using the church worship service to subsidize their spiritual intake, or B: our preferences on church and the worship service get in the way. How do both perspectives keep people at a distance from God? Isn't worship more than just singing and more than just music?

2. When it comes to worship, what does the "Nearness of God" mean to you and how do others enter into this kind of intimate worship to God?

3. Some churches do not talk about emotions and touchy-feely topics, but what are some Biblical references that demonstrate how God uses them to draw worshippers?

4. Biblically and personally, what do you encourage to the many young and up and coming worship leaders should know?

5. What's the one thing you hold true regarding bands, the main point that keep you coming back to?
