The purpose for this conference is to minister and equip local worship leaders, teams and volunteers in worship.

Worship leaders and their teams will gather from the area for a Saturday event that will include main session topics covering worship leading and theology, music theory and song study as well as team dynamics and rehearsal applications. Afterwards, the conference will culminate in a Band/Team Coaching Session. We will invite church bands from the area to be selected from a drawing to lead a song. During that time, each band will receive hands-on coaching and training. At the end of the day, teams will join in cooperate worship with an added prayer time for teams to pray for their community, local church and for one another.

Kruse is best known for his contribution to the auction arena, especially in the area of collector cars and real estate. For seventeen years, Kruse was owner, CEO, and auctioneer of Kruse International, the world's largest collector car sales organization. Kruse was the youngest licensed Realtor in the nation and the first person to sell a vehicle for a documented one million dollars cash while he earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from Indiana University. At the conclusion of his senior year in college, Mitch formed a new corporation to innovate the auction industry.

Mitch led Kruse International to producing fifty annual events that reached millions of automotive enthusiasts across the globe, offering more than 15,000 collectible vehicles at public auction each year, including the first Acura NSX, Plymouth Prowler, and Dodge Viper. Kruse also developed the first auction broadcasted live via satellite, the first auction streamed on the Internet, and the first auction produced on cable television (Financial News Network, forerunner to CNBC) as well as ESPN2 with several televised auctions reaching the highest ratings on their respective networks. Kruse has auctioned for royalty, heads of state, numerous celebrities, and the top classic car collectors in the world. Kruse Auctions are currently broadcasted on Fox Sports Network through a television series called, Bidding Wars.

Mitch's first book, Restoration Road, chronicles his story paralleled with Jesus' parable of the father who had two sons. He hosts, The Invitation, a DVD that captures his visit to the Philippines where he connected with some of the 14,000 families who live inside a Manila landfill. Mitch can be heard each month on WBCL Radio where he hosts The Restoration Road, a one-hour show devoted to the benefits of God's heart intersecting with street smarts.

Currently Mitch, his wife Susan, and their four daughters live in Auburn, Indiana, on their family farm homesteaded from the Indiana State government by his great-great-great grandfather in 1854.
