2. In Music News

Starfield - The Saving One

On their fourth studio album Starfield emphasizes intimacy, nuance and dynamics to impressive effect. As before, the well-burnished harmonies of brothers Tim and Jon Neufeld define the group stylistically. A thoughtful eloquence — underscored by stately pianos and lustrous acoustic guitar — make songs like “No Other Savior” and “Absolutely” stand out as modern rock hymns. Especially moving is “Something to Say,” a believer’s quietly intense confession of doubt. Most of all, the songs of Starfield manage to tell personal stories within the context of worship, as “Rediscover You” shows. The Saving One offers a smart, individual take on the now-familiar worship genre with honesty and reverence.

IN the meantime, pick up there current hit "Filled With Your Glory" now at PraiseCharts: <http://www.praisecharts.com/2696> find the link in the show notes.

3. In Book Review: "Can We Trust the Gospels? Investigating the Reliability of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John" by Mark D. Roberts (previous and returning guest)

Attacks on the historical reliability of the Gospels—especially their portrayal of Jesus Christ—are nothing new. But are these attacks legitimate? Is there reason to doubt the accuracy of the Gospels? By examining and refuting some of the most common criticisms of the Gospels, author Mark D. Roberts explains why we can indeed trust the Gospels, nearly two millennia after they were written. Lay readers and scholars alike will benefit from this accessible book, and will walk away confident in the reliability of the Gospels. Pick up the book on Amazon.com

Worship Team Training Ministry Spot

"Being An Engaging Worship Leader" by John Chisum Interview Conducted By Branon Dempsey

Maintaining our spiritual passion is one of the most important, and most difficult, aspects of being an engaging worship leader.

Three short points about worship:

- 1) Worship is first personal, then corporate
- 2) Worship is more than music
- 3) Worship is a life engaged with the grace of God

Spiritual passion encompasses all of life, not just our music ministries.

“The end of all worship leading is worship living.”

Kruse is best known for his contribution to the auction arena, especially in the area of collector cars and real estate. For seventeen years, Kruse was owner, CEO, and auctioneer of Kruse International, the world's largest collector car sales organization. Kruse was the youngest licensed Realtor in the nation and the first person to sell a vehicle for a documented one million dollars cash while he earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from Indiana University. At the conclusion of his senior year in college, Mitch formed a new corporation to innovate the auction industry.

Mitch led Kruse International to producing fifty annual events that reached millions of automotive enthusiasts across the globe, offering more than 15,000 collectible vehicles at public auction each year, including the first Acura NSX, Plymouth Prowler, and Dodge Viper. Kruse also developed the first auction broadcasted live via satellite, the first auction streamed on the Internet, and the first auction produced on cable television (Financial News Network, forerunner to CNBC) as well as ESPN2 with several televised auctions reaching the highest ratings on their respective networks. Kruse has auctioned for royalty, heads of state, numerous celebrities, and the top classic car collectors in the world. Kruse Auctions are currently broadcasted on Fox Sports Network through a television series called, Bidding Wars.

Mitch's first book, Restoration Road, chronicles his story paralleled with Jesus' parable of the father who had two sons. He hosts, The Invitation, a DVD that captures his visit to the Philippines where he connected with some of the 14,000 families who live inside a Manila landfill. Mitch can be heard each month on WBCL Radio where he hosts The Restoration Road, a one-hour show devoted to the benefits of God's heart intersecting with street smarts.

Currently Mitch, his wife Susan, and their four daughters live in Auburn, Indiana, on their family farm homesteaded from the Indiana State government by his great-great-great grandfather in 1854.
